

The state of your mental health affects how you think, feel, and ultimately how you act. It's crucial that we express these emotions with others on a daily basis. On each finger, can you write the name of someone you can speak to about how you feel? Now decorate the hand however you wish...

